

RULES AT A GLANCE

Before admission to Hannah Center:

- Hannah Center booklet must be read & understood.
- All Hannah Center forms must be signed.

General rules:

- Setting of goals and taking steps to reach those goals to achieve self-sufficiency is YOUR primary work at Hannah Center.
- First month at Hannah Center, no visits home.
- Counseling is required once a week.
- You must go to school or get a job while here.
- You will pay HC 33% of your (net) take-home pay.
- Participation in government programs is limited to medical insurance and WIC formula vouchers.
- No sexual activity or alcohol, tobacco, or drug usage while HC resident.
- Make bed daily and clean room.
- Permission required before anything may be put on bedroom walls; permission required to move room furniture.
- No borrowing, trading, buying/selling of personal property.
- Chores are assigned to you each week.
- It's your responsibility to prepare and cleanup after breakfast/lunch. Prepare nighttime meal at least once a week.
- Breakfast over by 10 a.m. Lunch from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.
- Dinner from 5 to 6:00 p.m.
- Snacks are allowed, but shouldn't require cooking between meals. NO food allowed upstairs; no Kool-aid upstairs ever.
- Permission must be granted to have car at Hannah Center. Curfew is 10 p.m. weeknights; One weekend night you may stay out until 11p.m. with permission. Obtain permission for social activities and weekends away well in advance.
- Your laundry is your responsibility.
- Telephone usage subject to 5 minutes a call during daytime. Two 20 minute calls a night and no calls between 9 p.m. and 8 a.m. No cell phones are permitted.
- No smoking.
- TV/VCR/DVD usage only allowed after dinner.
- No use of other's library card.
- You may not hold one another's child/ren.

Reasons to be asked to leave:

- Not following house rules/not involved in program.
- Incompatibility with other residents or staff.
- Violent or criminal behavior.
- Use of drugs or alcohol.
- Endangerment of self/others.

